Of the members of the Election Commission, there shall be a Chair and Vice-Chair who shall be appointed by the Student Body Attorney General and confirmed by a majority affirmative vote of the Student Assembly.

SECTION FIVE – Elections Commission

Responsibilities. The Elections Commission shall be responsible for the oversight of all elections, the enforcement of election rules, and the taking of disciplinary action against candidates or tickets that violate election rules. Members of the Election Commission must meet the qualifications of a Student Assembly Representative. Members of the Elections Commission shall uphold all provisions outlined in the Constitution, Bylaws, and all other governing documents of the Student Government Association.

SECTION SIX – Term Limits. A term is defined as one academic year, beginning upon the installation of officers in the spring semester and terminating upon the installation of officers the following year. Half a term is defined as six (6) months from the date of the office installation.

Article V. LINE OF SUCCESSION.

SECTION ONE – Student Body President. In the event of a vacancy of the office of the Student Body President, the Student Body Vice President shall become the Student Body President. If the Student Body Vice President is unable to assume the office of the Student Body President, then the Speaker of the Student Assembly shall become the Student Body President. In the event that this line of succession is exhausted, the Student Assembly shall convene to elect a new Student Body President from among the membership of the Student Assembly. The election shall require a two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of the Student Assembly.

SECTION TWO – Student Body Vice President. In the event of a vacancy of the office of the Student Body Vice President, the Student Body President shall appoint a successor, whose appointment shall be subject to approval by a two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of the Student Assembly.

SECTION THREE – Student Assembly Representatives. In the event that a Representative of the Student Assembly position becomes vacant, the replacement shall be selected through a process outlined in the Bylaws.

SECTION FOUR – Executive Cabinet. In the event that a Director position becomes vacant, the replacement shall be selected by the Student Body President according to the process outlined in Article III of this Constitution. The Student Body President may choose not to fill vacant Non-Standing Director positions, or they may be filled according to the process outlined in Article III of this Constitution.

SECTION FIVE – Officers of the Student Assembly. In the event that an Officer of the Student Assembly position becomes vacant, the replacement shall be selected through a process outlined in the Article II of this Constitution.

SECTION SIX – Elections Commission. In the event that an Elections Commission position becomes vacant, the replacement shall be selected through a process outlined in the Bylaws.

Article VI. ADVISOR(S).

SECTION ONE – Advisor(s). The Student Government Association Advisor(s) shall be appointed by East Carolina University and shall serve as mentor(s) to provide support and guidance to the members of the Student Government Association.

Article VII. RESIGNATION, REMOVAL, AND IMPEACHMENT

SECTION ONE – Resignation. Any elected or appointed member of the Student Government Association may resign from their position at any time with written notice of resignation presented to the Student Body Attorney General. Any vacancy created by the resignation shall be filled according to the line of succession outlined in Article V of this Constitution.

SECTION TWO – Grounds for Impeachment. Any elected or appointed member of the Student Government Association may be removed from office following an Impeachment Hearing. A member of the Student Government Association may be removed from office for any of the following reasons: a finding of responsibility for violating the Student Code of Conduct while holding office, the inability to perform official duties or responsibilities as outlined by the Constitution and Bylaws, any violations of the Constitution or Bylaws, acts of discrimination, abuse of power, fraudulent misrepresentation on official documents, or any other grievance brought before the Student Government Association.

SECTION THREE – University Disciplinary Processes. In the event that any elected or appointed member of the Student Government Association satisfies any of these qualifications for removal and those qualifications for removal are also in conflict with the disciplinary rules of East Carolina University, no action shall be taken by the Student Government Association until the disciplinary processes outlined by East Carolina University have been exhausted. Any East Carolina University student may file a completed grievance of service with the Student Body Attorney General, as prescribed in the Bylaws. If an elected or appointed member of the Student Government Association meets any qualification for removal from office, has had a grievance filed against them, and East Carolina University has exhausted its disciplinary processes, that member will be officially be presented with an opportunity to resign from office by the Student Body Attorney General or the Student Government Association Advisor(s) prior to the initiation of the Impeachment Hearing Process.

SECTION FOUR – Impeachment Hearing Process. The Student Body Attorney General shall ensure that the qualifications for removal from office have been met as specified in Article III Section Two of this Constitution. The Student Body Attorney General shall schedule a meeting with the member to inform them of the grievance filed, their rights as a student, and an explanation of the hearing process. After receiving the grievance, the Student Body Attorney General shall form a Student Review Committee from the current Student Assembly within ten (10) University calendar days of the grievance being filed. The Student Review Committee shall present their findings on the accusations against the elected or appointed member of the Student Government Association to the Student Assembly during the Impeachment Hearing. Prior to the next meeting of the Student Assembly, the Student Body Attorney General shall present the accused member with the opportunity to view the information that will be shared to the Student Assembly in accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. The Student Body Attorney General must schedule an Impeachment Hearing upon the establishment of the Student Review Committee. This Impeachment Hearing may be a meeting of the Student Assembly in closed session, in accordance with North Carolina Law.

SECTION FIVE – Student Review Committee Composition. This Student Review Committee shall be composed of the Student Body Attorney General, the Speaker of the Student Assembly, the Student Government Association Advisor(s) in a non-voting advisory role, and three (3) Representatives of the Student Assembly, each Representative being a member of a different Standing Committee. The Student Body Attorney General shall serve as chair and only vote in the event of a tie. If any member of the committee has a conflict of interest, the Student Body Vice President, Student Body Treasurer, and Student Body Secretary shall serve as alternate members.
